Gift Aid. If you are a UK taxpayer, the society can recover tax (currently 28p for every £1 you pay us) at no cost to yourself so long you pay income tax or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that the society recovers. Higher-rate taxpayers can claim further tax back for themselves.

I confirm that I am a tax payer and want the Open Spaces Society to treat all subscriptions and donations to the Society I make from this date as Gift Aid donations.

You can cancel this declaration at any time.

Direct Debit instruction. If you use the Direct Debit instruction, we can collect your subscription direct from your bank. This saves you the bother and us the administrative costs. You can cancel at any time and we shall tell you in advance of any changed subscription rates.

DONATIONS AND LEGACIES

Please consider making donations to the society. Provided you have made a Gift Aid declaration, the society will be able to recover, currently, a further 28p for each £1 (whatever the size of donation). Please also consider leaving the society a legacy in your will.

Please contact the office on 01491 573535 or email to membership.accts@oss.org.uk.
