AGM 2022

Candidates for election as trustee

1 Graham Bathe

Graham is a former chair of the OSS. He was a council member of the National Trust and director of the Foundation for Common Land. He has 40 years' experience in access and countryside, working for government agencies, local authorities and charities in Britain and overseas. He led English Nature's work on the CRoW and Commons Acts. Graham has worked on national visitor surveys, vehicles on RoW, and environmental conflict resolution.

He served on the Wildlife and Access Advisory Group, National Countryside Access Forum, Defra's Commons Act Project Board, and New Forest and Hampstead Heath committees.

2 Phil Wadey

Phil is currently chairman of the OSS and member of the Legal and Finance committees. He joined the society in 2004 to support the work on greens, commons and rights of way. Phil specialises in rights of way historical research and enjoys adding paths to the definitive map through research or negotiation (44km (27 miles) recorded so far). He brings skills to the Board from running large projects and from extensive board-level work in a range of organisations, including the charitable sector.
